

Presents

My Dyslexia: An Evening with Philip Schultz

Pulitzer Prize-winning poet Philip Schultz will read from his new memoir, My Dyslexia. Mr. Schultz shares his improbable journey from the boy who could not learn to read to the writer and poet who received one of the world's most prestigious arts and letters awards.

Schultz's inspiring story of finding and developing his unique strengths and talents will encourage all parents of children with learning disabilities. Copies of his new book will be available for sale. Students are welcome.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 7:30 TO 9:00 PM

At the Westport Public Library, 20 Jesup Road, Westport CT.

Co-sponsored by the Westport Public Library

Philip Schultz is founder/director of The Writers Studio, a private school for fiction and poetry writing based in New York City. He is the author of several collections of poetry, including Failure (2007), co-winner of the 2008 Pulitzer Prize in Poetry, The God of Loneliness (2010), Living in the Past (2004), and The Holy Worm of Praise (2002). He is the author of Deep within the Ravine, Like Wings and My Guardian Angel Stein (1986) and widely published.

To register for this free program:

Email Programs@SmartKidswithLD.org

Or call 203-226-6703

www.SmartKidswithLD.org